The 12th grade honor students were in last week's paper.

Carver - Price High School of Appomattox will be host to the Ninth Annual Student Participation Association on April 12 and 13.

There will be over 100 schools participating in this conference from various parts of Virginia. The faculty and students of Carver-Price are busily making preparations for the occasion. Miss E. M. Betts is the sponsor of the Appomattox School Student Participation Association.

The N. F. A. Chapter of Carver-Price High School held their elimination contest in the gym March 20. The winners were: talent, Ernest Daye; male quartet, 11th grade; quiz, Thomas Haskins; public speaking, Charles Jones.

These boys will represent Carver-Price in the Western Confederation which will be held here at Carver-Price April 17.

Until next week, our thought: "Then awake! the heavens look bright, my dear; 'Tis never too late for delight, my dear; And the best of all ways."

The sad news has reached us of the tragic auto accident in Heilbronn, Germany, March 12, to the family of Charles Jeffries, whose wife, Dianne, was instantly killed. Funeral services were held for her at her home in Clinton, North Carolina, Sunday, March 24, from the First Baptist Church. Their eleven months old baby was uninjured. Jeffries is hospitalized. They were flown to the States, reaching the Air Port at Greensboro, N. C. Friday, March 22, P. M. Charles O. Jeffries is one of our Appomattox boys, a graduate of Virginia State College, and is now a Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

IN PLAYS AT W. & M.

. . . . Miss Edna Gregory

Edna Gregory, a sophomore at the College of William and Mary, will be cast in the role of the nurse, in the production of Romeo and Juliet which wil be given by the William and Mary Players on March 27, 28 and 29. The play will be the first to be given in the new Phi Beta Kappa Building, the theatre of which William and Mary people are justly proud. All the theatre people who have been associated with the William and Mary Players since 1926, as well as all theatre people in the state, have been invited for opening night.

Edna has been given the part of the Heavenly Director in the spring production of "Theatre is a Lady," and the part of Goodie Red Head in "The Founders," the pageant of Jamestown which will run from May through October to celebrate the Jamestown Festival.

Edna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Gregory, of Appomattox.

LUCKY CLOVER 4-H CLUB

The Lucky Clover 4-H Club won first prize at the Electric Congress which was held at Appomattox on Saturday, March 16.

They had the largest attendance, took first place in the demonstration, and first in the exhibits.

Two light bulbs each were won by Louella Martin, Betsy Williams, Mary Libby Tolley, Eleanor Richardson, Philip Lucado, and Eloise Rosser for placing the exhibits nearest to the way they had been judged.

Mrs. Rob Martin is their sponsor.

Congress may cut a billion dollars off President Eisenhower's $4,263,000,000 foreign-aid request, said Senator Republican Leader Knowland.

TOGETHER
we can do it

Sometimes a task is just too great for one person. Sometimes we need an extra pair of hands to swing the job — quickly, easily, effectively.

This is just another way of saying "People, working together, can do anything" . . . And, that is the working creed of Nationwide Insurance.

People want the protection of insurance. They want the strongest and broadest protection they can get, at the most reasonable price possible. Nationwide Insurance is working with people to help them achieve just that. Are we succeeding? . . . Over 2,000,000 Nationwide Insurance owners attest "Yes"!

It will pay you to investigate Nationwide Insurance. Call, or write . . .

"Stonewall

Stonewall, March 26.- My, my, it seems as if we are in for some more winter weather. Hope we will miss the snow that other places are having.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Jennings, who were married last Saturday night by Rev. Aaron Smith, the pastor, at the home of Mr. Harmon Jennings. Best wishes go with this young couple for a long and happy life together.

Lots of ladies from around here will attend a shower in Lynchburg for Mr. and Mrs. Jennings tomorrow night, given by his sisters, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Gibson.

Glad to know Mr. Lyle Caldwell has improved enough to be at home after being in a Richmond hospital for two weeks.

Mr. Dan Carson and Mr. Billy Carson, of V. P. I., spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carson and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carson.

Mr. E. W. Carson expects to return to the hospital on Thursday of this week for an operation on his knee, that he hurt so badly last year in an accident. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ray Burnette and son, of Concord spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Burnette.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Showalters, of Lynchburg, were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Carson on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks Jennings spent the week-end in Richmond with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Sisson, and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Irby Wheeler spent last week-end in Richmond with their son, Bob and his family. They also visited other relatives there.

Model for model, right across the board
The Fairlane Club Victoria is a brilliant example of the Mark of Tomorrow styling and built-in plus-values that have made Ford the best-selling car in the nation.

FORD is the lowest priced of the low-price three!
Everywhere you look in the new Ford, you see plus-value features. And these advanced features that make Ford your best buy today . . . also make it your best buy for the years ahead.
There are many plus-values in the all-new "Inner Ford!"
You don't ordinarily see many of the plus-value features that are built deep down into the all-new "Inner Ford." For example, such features as the new, sturdier, contoured frame and new suspensions, front and rear.
There's a big plus-value in Ford power for '57!
This year, you can pick a Ford engine to suit your power needs from a whole new family of mightier Ford V-8's. Or you may choose the new Mileage Maker Six.
Ford is worth more when you sell it!
The years-ahead styling and rugged "Inner Ford" features that make Ford worth more now are the features that will make it worth more when you are finally ready to sell it or trade it in.
Ford is priced right!
Comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices proves that model for model, Ford is the lowest-priced, full-size car.
Action Test a Ford . . . and see for yourself!
The only way to get fully acquainted with a car is to get behind the wheel and drive it. And we will be happy to have you come in and Action Test a '57 Ford at any time.
